

Look Abroad!

Jobs in Denmark for Spanish Health Care Professionals

Look Abroad! is a start-up specialised in recruiting Spanish health care professionals, including medical doctors, nurses and dentist. Our mission is to help Danish health care employers finding qualified candidates, which they cannot find in Denmark and at the same time helping Spanish or other European Union health care professionals finding a good job in Denmark.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for medical doctors, nurses and dentists who would consider working in Denmark. You need to have a health care degree from a Spanish or other European Union university and to be a European Union citizen. Further, you need to have an English level of at least B2.

We are especially interested in hearing from medical doctors having a further specialisation in endocrinology, gastroenterology, geriatrics, family medicine (general practitioner), nephrology, neurology, obstetrics and gynaecology, oncology, pulmonology, and urology.

If that sounds like you, then we will be happy to receive you CV.

Our services are of course free of charge for the candidates.

What can we do for you ?

- We will help you finding an attractive job, with good opportunities for professional and personal development, an attractive salary at Danish market level, and a permanent contract.
- You will get a free, intensive Danish course before you start working in Denmark.
- You will get help with all the practical issues related to moving to a new country, such as personal identity number, social security, taxes, finding a place to live, finding a school for your kids, and so on.
- If you consider moving to Denmark with your partner, then we will get help finding a job for him/her too.
- In each of our job advertisements you can read more about the specific offer to you for that job.

Why forward your CV to us?

- We are specialised in finding Spanish health care professionals for Danish employers. Therefore, we know where the job opportunities are, and we have access to the most important health care employers.
- We know and understand the challenges related to moving to another country and working there and can provide you with advice, should that be needed.
- We always keep our candidates informed about the status of their applications, and we always reply to the questions we receive from the candidates.
- We are close to you. We have our offices in Madrid, and we speak Spanish.

Why work in Denmark?

- Danish employers typically give their employees a lot of freedom and responsibility. You will be treated with respect and your opinions and suggestions will be taken seriously.
- You will get a good salary, which will clearly exceed the salary for a similar position in Spain.
- You will be working in a highly professional organisation using state-of-the-art equipment and methods.
- Denmark offers a very attractive work-private life balance, making the country especially attractive for families with children. The weekly working time is 37 hours plus lunch breaks.
- Denmark is a very organised and safe country.

Our ethics

- We will not publish job offers, which are based on social dumping, i.e. contracting a foreigner with the purpose of paying a salary, which is lower than what a local employee would be paid.
- Personal information received from any candidate will be treated as confidential and the identity of any candidate will only be revealed to an employer after prior permission from the candidate.
- All information from candidates will be handled in compliance with the Spanish law on protection of personal data ("Reglamento General de Protección de Datos") (see note on the last page).
- All candidates will be treated with respect and no one will be discriminated because of his or her age, gender, family status, disability, race, ethnic background, nationality, religion or sexual orientation.

What do you need to do?

- Forward your CV in English to look-abroad@outlook.com. Please attach a copy of your diploma(s) with the results of all exams. You are welcome to attach further documents in Spanish or English (diplomas, certificates, references, etc.).
- We will send you a short questionnaire, which you will need to fill in.

Note regarding protection of personal data:

In accordance with the Spanish “Reglamento General de Protección de Datos” based on the European Regulation EU 2016/679 about protection of personal data, Arne Beyerholm, as responsible for the records informs you about the following:

- The personal data, which we ask you to provide, will be kept in a record with the objective of matching your qualifications and expectations with specific job offers.
- We will only maintain and use information about you, which you have provided yourself. We ask all candidates to forward their CV (with the contents you find relevant). Once we have received your CV, we will forward a link to our Candidate Questionnaire, where we inform you about how we handle your personal data and give you the options of accepting this or rejecting it. In the latter case we will delete all information received from you.
- We keep the following personal information about you: Your CV, the filled-in Candidate Questionnaire, your diplomas (in some cases) and notes from any contacts to you, including job interviews. If you provide any further information voluntarily (e.g. a cover letter, diplomas, certificates or references), then we will obviously keep and use that information.
- Look Abroad! does not need and does not want to receive sensitive personal data, which are not relevant for understanding your qualifications and job expectations. Please do not provide us with information related to health, race, ethnic origin, political standpoint, religious belief, ideology, or union membership (the Spanish “colegios”). Further, please avoid including your DNI (personal identity number) in your CV.
- Please be aware that you have the right to see, correct, delete or disagree with your personal data. You can exercise this right by sending an email to look-abroad@outlook.com or by contacting Arne Beyerholm, Calle Maqueda 122, 28024 Madrid.
